AURAL COMPREHENSION

Musa was very happy that his cousin, Hassan, had come to stay with them during the holiday. During such school holidays, local football teams in the village usually played against one another. Musa had a special liking for Hassan because he was a formidable football player. Hassan was a key player in his school's football team. The team that Musa feared most was Mtongani Football Club led by Omari. But he was certain that with Hassan in his team, their rival was not lucky.

The competition for this holiday was to begin in a week's time. The first match was to be played between Mtongani and Mtakuja Football Club. The two teams did not leave anything to chance in their preparations. Following Hassan's advice, Mtakuja watched videos of professional football players. They marveled at the skills, speed, and determination of these fantastic players. They agreed to emulate what they had watched.

On the day, a huge crowd gathered to watch the big match. No sooner had the referee blown the whistle than there was a blinding flash of lightning accompanied by a heavy clap of thunder. Everything went quiet. "This game cannot continue. We can plan it for another day." The referee announced as he ran away to take cover from the heavy downpour that followed.

Wazazi wao walifariki Aziza akiwa na miaka ishirini. Walimuacha Aziza na wadogo zake watano. Mara baada ya vifo vya wazazi wao watoto hao ilibidi wakimbie kuelekea mjini. Nia ya kuenda mjini ilikuwa ni kumtafuta mjomba wao aitwaye Jamali . Takribani wiki nzima walitangatanga kila mahali kumtafuta mjomba huku wakila jalalani na kulala stendi ya mabasi

Siku moja wakiwa wamekata tamaa alitokea mzee mmoja na kutaka kuwasaidia walipotazamana kila mmoja aligundua kuwa aliyemuona mbele yake ndiye aliyekuwa anamtafuta. walijawa na nyuso za mshangao na bashasha. Jamali aliwachukua na kwenda nao nyumbani kwake ndipo walipoamini kuwa Mungu hamtupi mja wake.
